Tanya Moberly recently waged a successful Kickstarter Campaign to finance the recordings, release and promotion of I LOVE NEW YORK SONGWRITERS PART I AND PART II. The shows consist of 45 songs by NYC writers Tanya has met through her work as a singer and producer, many of them through The Salon, the Sunday evening songwriters' soirée created by Mark Janas, for which she has won six MAC Awards as producer and which she has been producing for 8 years. Songwriters represented in the shows include familiar names such as Grammy Winner Julie Gold, Journalist/Songwriter David Hajdu, Jill Sobule, the late Francesca Blumenthal and 2x Grammy Award Nominee Larry Kerchener. A complete alphabetical list of songwriters appears on page 2 of this release.

"I am in love with New York, and I know or have known every one of the writers on this project whose work I'm still thrilled to perform after all these years. I love them all, admire them so much, and I'm absolutely thrilled to be able to record their music and expose it to a wider world." – Tanya Moberly

TANYA MOBERLY has been performing in NYC cabaret since 1997 when she co-created THE BLONDE LEADING THE BLONDE with Susan Hackett.
